The unauthorised consumption, possession, import, export and/or trafficking of any controlled drug is an offence under Singapore's Misuse of Drugs Act. Under the Act, drug trafficking is punishable by death.

Providing false health and travel declarations is an offence under Section 64(b) of Singapore's Infectious Diseases Act. The penalty for providing false or misleading information is a fine of up to S$10,000 and/or imprisonment of up to 6 months. For subsequent offence(s), the penalty is a fine up to S$20,000 and/or imprisonment of up to 12 months.

You are reminded that it is your responsibility to update and resubmit your declarations prior to your arrival in Singapore if you had contact with a COVID-19 case, and/or if there is any change in your health status and/or travel history.

You are required by law to give a report using Form NP 727/A/B/C if the total value of currency and/or bearer negotiable instruments you are carrying exceeds SGD 20,000 (or equivalent in a foreign currency).

If you are bringing in any item, or carrying an item for someone else, but you do not know what it contains, you must declare the item at the Red Channel.

You can refer to the ICA website at Entering and Departing Singapore for more information on Singapore's entry requirements and the list of prohibited or controlled items.
